Cinch Authorized Distributors:

Due to manufacturing issues and low sales Cinch will be obsoleting our Jones and Edge connector lines. Attached is a list of part numbers that are on the current price list that will be obsoleted. We will be offering at last time buy through August 15, 2024, however, orders will need to be reviewed prior to being entered to confirm there won't be issues manufacturing the parts.

If you have any of these part numbers in your inventory and wish to return them, you have 30 days to request an RMA. The parts will need to be functional and purchased from Cinch within the last two years.

Cinch apologizes for any inconvenience this may cause you or your customers. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Pam Bauch
