

PCN819: Carling Brownsville Shipment Point Transfer
Issue Date: October 16th, 2023

Dear Valued Customer,

This notice is to inform you of the upcoming transfer for all shipping operations contained within its Carling Brownsville site.

Description of the Change:

- All shipping operations will begin to be handled through a new Brownsville 3PL Provider (Third-Party Logistics) at the below address:
Carling Technologies Inc.
c/o DSV Air & Sea Inc.
1385 Cheers St Ste B
Brownsville, TX 78521

Reason for The Change:

- Relocation of these services in order to accommodate the move of our Carling Brownsville operations to our Carling Matehuala, MX facility.

Effective Date of the Change:

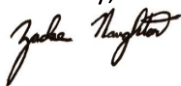

- This transition will start mid-December 2023. Exact date will follow in a subsequent notice.

What You Need to Do:

- No action is required from you at this time; this notification is an announcement only.
- Littelfuse will reach out with a subsequent notification no later than first week of November with exact date to update addresses, where applicable.
- There will be no change in fit/form/function or part numbers with this transfer.

If you have any questions, please contact your Customer Service or Inside Sales Representative. We appreciate your business and our continued partnership.

Sincerely,

Zachary Naughton
