

Product Change Notice: JW Relay Sockets Part Display Marking Change

PCN.PG06.04.11.2024

04.11.2024

About This Notice:

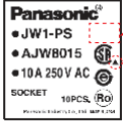

We would like to inform that the JW socket relays are subject to change. The marking displayed on the product body, inner carton, and outer carton will be changed in order to comply with the display specifications of the certification standard.

Effective Date:

November 1, 2023.

Change Details:

For the product body, the CSA mark is added. For the Inner Carton, the UL mark is removed, and CSA mark is added. Lastly, the CSA and UL logos are both deleted from the outer carton.

Affected Parts:

JW1-PS (JW1 PC board socket)
JW2-PS (JW2 PC board socket)

Datasheet(s):

See attached.

Notes:

The part number, specification, safety certifications, and price remain unchanged.
CSA requires a CSA component acceptance mark if ratings are to be displayed on the outside of the product whereas UL does not need to display the mark on the packaging when displaying the mark on the product.
