

Product Change Notification

PCN Date	Thursday, June 03, 2010
Supplier Name	Pulse
Pulse PCN Number	10-021 – Revision A
Description of Change	Change in marking method for transfer molded product identification. The marking change is related to the external marking of the component that includes the Pulse name and logo, part number (and customer part number when applicable), date code, country of origin and safety agency (s) logo. Since February 2009 Pulse has been using laser marking on selected transfer molded parts and customers. Pulse will continue to use an ink base process as an alternative method and until further notice ink base process will continue to be the standard for other products/construction.
Reason for Change	Improve marking quality and readability and permanency Simplify process and increase yield
