

Product Change Notification

PCN Date:	June 28 th , 2013
Supplier Name:	Pulse Electronics
Pulse PCN No.	13-024 – Revision C, Revised July 8, 2013
Description of Change	Pulse to change header design and part numbering for open construction products: modification to the header body not affecting fit (customer's board layout) and function (internal assembly and functionality).
Reason for Change	Pulse has designed a new family of parts to replace existing product families in compliance with Permanent Injunction 2:07-cv-00331-PMP-PAL. In the near future, Pulse expects to issue an End-of-Life (EOL) for the original family of part numbers.
Summary of Changes	Present	New
	Thermoplastic case with molded pins.	Thermoplastic case with inserted pins (please see below details).
Traceability guidelines	The change is traced by the assignment of new part numbering scheme.
Qualification Data	Qualification data completed on product family basis.
