

20-Jul-2016

PCN #:E-16-010094

Subject:AMPLIMITE Cable Plug Connector/Cover Kit

Description of Change: There is no change to the product. The part number revision is changing to A so it matches our internal production drawing revision. Again, there is no change to any part other than the letter revision. There is no change to the customer drawing.

Reason: Product Improvement. Our internal documentation revisions did not match and this just makes the part number revisions match our internal production drawing revision so our manufacturing plants do not get confused. There is no change to any part.

Impact of Change:form - fit - function
