Subject:CII Brand Midrange Relays

Description of Change: Dear Valued Customer, This letter is notification of an upcoming manufacturing location change involving TE Connectivity, CII brand 5 to 50 amp midrange electromechanical and time delay relays. This is a change in production site only and does not affect the design or form-fit-function of the product in any way. Over the course of the next several months, TE will be migrating its standard catalog and QPL midrange product lines to our Cochin, India production facility. This facility currently manufactures our high volume T0-5/Minigrid and Crystal Can relays (M39016 types).

Reason: Midrange Manufacturing Location Change

Impact of Change:Manufacturing location change
