Subject:DEUTSCH DT04-4P-E008 Product Drawing Update and Part Revision Alignment.

Description of Change: The Industrial and Commercial Transportation business unit of TE Connectivity is making a change to the DT04-4P-E008 product drawing and part revision. The drawing is being updated to current TE standards for format, notes, tolerance and tables. The length dimension on the drawing is changing from 2.296 to 2.291 to reflect the actual part being produced. The part revision is changing from - to A to align to our documentation.

Reason: Document Clarification. Dear Customer, we hereby inform you of this change. The change is necessary to improve our product documentation. The change does not impact connector performance. The only change to the part that you will notice is the revision.
