

Dear Channel Partner,

As China battles multiple COVID-19 outbreaks, TE continues to experience negative impacts on our operations and supply chain from the restrictions enforced by the Shanghai governments due to the pandemic. Transportation of products imported and exported through Shanghai, related Shanghai local warehousing services and Shanghai local pickup and deliveries will be impacted or delayed. TE Connectivity (including all relevant TE affiliated companies, collectively "TE") must respectfully advise that this situation constitutes a Force Majeure event under the relevant contracts/agreements/orders (the "Orders") impacted thereby.

As a result of the above situations that are beyond our reasonable expectation and control, a negative impact on our operations and ability to supply is inevitable and consequently your company might be experiencing increases in quoted lead times, longer shipment times and/or rescheduled orders for TE affected products. TE must respectfully advise your company that we will not accept responsibility (including the responsibility for financial costs) for any resulting line-down or other supply chain related charges.

Please be assured that TE has already been exploring all possible options by developing alternative logistics and warehousing solutions to assist you to mitigate possible impact of this Force Majeure event. We are sensitive to your needs and willing to discuss these solutions with you. Please liaise with your TE sales representatives/customer service staff if your orders have been impacted or are likely to be impacted by this Force Majeure event.

Should you have any questions regarding this notice, please contact your assigned TE sales representative or Solution Center Team.

Very truly yours,

Sean Miller
Vice President, Global Channel Sales
