PCN #:E-12-008979

Subject:Circuit Board Mount CPC Connectors

Description of Change: The part number and date code are currently marked on the connector housing using a white hot stamp or white ink stamp marking method. This change will allow the use of laser marking as an optional marking method for the part number and date code.

Reason: Automating the part marking using a laser will help eliminate marking errors as well as help maintain the customer requested lead time for these connectors.
