Subject:CONTACT, FEMALE, 0.64mm, Gen Y, Unsealed&Sealed, tin&silver

Description of Change: A new dual strip capacity die is being brought on-line to meet the continually increasing demand on the Generation Y female contacts. The new capacity die is being tooled specifically for the "Unsealed, Tin", "Sealed, Silver" and "Sealed, Tin" series contacts. PPAP's from this new die will be in series with the "Unsealed, Tin" taking priority (estimated shipments in April 2013), the "Sealed, Silver" second (estimated shipments in May 2013) and the "Sealed, Tin" lastly (estimated shipments in June 2013).

Reason: Customer Request.Capacity die required to meet industry/customer demand. Note to Sales & Quality: NO QDBLOCK required since these parts are currently being produced and shipments can not be affected. Production from this die will be controlled internally so no parts are shipped before PPAP approvals received.

Impact of Change:form - fit - function
